

DAWN SCHAFER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

I. Purpose

The Dawn Schafer Memorial Scholarship has been established to help a member of the graduating class of Central High School further their education. Preference will be given to students planning careers in Health or Education.

II. Eligibility

- A. Member of the current graduating class (participating in graduation)
- B. A statement of admission to a four-year college or university in Illinois

III. Application Procedure

- A. Application may be obtained from the Guidance Department of Central High School
- B. Submission of 3 or more letters of reference from:
 - 1. faculty member of CHS
 - 2. faculty member of CHS
 - 3. adult member of community (not a relative)
- C. Return completed TYPED form and letters to Guidance Department by announced deadline date

IV. Selection Procedure

The Dawn Schafer Memorial Scholarship committee consists of the high school Principal, a guidance counselor and/or Dean of Students, and a member of the Schafer family.

V. Selection Criteria

- A. Demonstrate adequate scholastic ability to succeed in continued education
- B. Demonstrate a genuine concern and caring for others
- C. Indicate being a good worker and all-around good citizen
- D. Participate in extra-curricular activities in school and/or community

VI. Financial Consideration

The family will determine the amount or number of scholarships. The recipient and/or recipients will receive an award letter and certificate during the Central High School award ceremony presented by a member of the Schafer family or someone of their choosing. To receive this scholarship, the recipient must bring the award letter and a copy of their first semester transcript with a GPA of 2.8 to Tom Cleary or an officer of the Federated Bank of Chebanse. The bank officer will present the candidate with a check for half of the scholarship amount made payable to the college or university to reimburse the cost of tuition registration or book fees. The recipient will repeat this process to receive the final award payment for the second semester. If the recipient does not have the required 2.8 GPA or chooses not to finish his or her education the scholarship will be terminated.

VII. Scholarship Application Parts

- A. Typed Scholarship Application
- B. Three or more letters of reference
- C. Transcript
- D. Copy of acceptance letter to 4 year college or university
