CLOTHING II

Sandy Wilken

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Description:

Grades 10 - 12 (1 Semester)

This class increases the level of knowledge and skills of students as they construct, purchase, care for, and work with clothing, accessories, and textiles. Broad areas of emphasis include planning a wardrobe, consumer rights & responsibilities, selecting clothes for family members, and sewing and construction skills. More difficult construction techniques are learned. A book cover is the first project, and then a zipped garment will be constructed. An additional Christmas project will be completed, as well as a project book with samples and illustrations.

Prerequisite: LIFE and Clothing I

Note: The projects will require extra cost to the family.

Course Objectives:

Upon the successful completion of this course, students will be able to: explain the goals of wardrobe planning; use the decision-making process to make clothing decisions; describe their rights and responsibilities as a consumer of goods and services; identify and compare the features of different types of stores and non-store shopping; evaluate standards of quality construction in garments; identify the factors that affect clothing decisions for family members of all ages; construct various types of waistline treatments and pockets; explain how the serger functions and use it properly.

Required Class Materials:

Good attitude and great attendance, as well as willingness to do readings, homework, and projects.
