

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Introduction to Social Studies

Mr. Williams

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Description:

The survey course will introduce the study of sociology, history, economics, political science, psychology and geography. Required course for Class of 2010 and beyond.

Course Objectives:

Students will have the opportunity to gain the basic understanding of each of the core subjects offered at Central High School. Each unit will provide a basic vocabulary, application skill set and practical purpose for each of the content areas covered.

Required Class Materials:

Notebook, Pencils

Text:

Introduction to the Social Sciences

Course Outline:

August-September/January-February: Basic Study Skills and Psychology

October/March: Sociology and Anthropology

November/April: Geography and History

December/May: Economics and Political Science

Major Assignments:

Country Research Assignment: Due end of November.

Current Event Activities: Due at the end of each month during the semester.

Grading: (Grading Scale and if you weight your class list the weight of each category)

Grading Scale follows the guidelines provided within the student handbook.

Class Policies & Procedures: (Include class policies and procedures i.e. lab make-ups, special requirements etc.)

All classroom Policies and Procedures follow those provided in the student handbook. Any questions or concerns will be handled on an individual basis.

Instructor Contact:

Mr. Travis Williams- Available by appointment during the day.

Email: Twilliams@cusd4.org

Phone: 815-694-2321